LETTERS FROM THE INTERIOR OF THE STATE.

(FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT.)

ALBANY, Oct. 30, 1868.

I crossed the North Santiam and was then in the "forks," commonly known as "Canada," a large district of country lying between the North and South Santiam. Taken as a whole, it is not an undesirable locality. In many places the scenery is one, and much of the land is rich and well adapted to farming and grazing. But the most of it seems to have fallen into the possession of persons incapable or unwilling to improve it. Many of the houses are small—mere shanties, and the barns, fences, etc., are mean and shabby. This is the stronghold of Rebeldom in Linn county—the home of ignorance and "dirty shirt democracy." About the greatest crime that can be committed here, is to vote the Union ticket, as may be illustrated by the following incident, which, as I am informed, positively occurred at a Southern Methodist camp-meeting, held in the "forks" soon after the last election: An old lady, Mrs. ——, among others, arose to tell her "experience." She said that for a long time she had had many "trials and tribulations" in her family that had very much disturbed the "peace and quiet of her soul," and had caused her to have many "doubts and misgivings," as to whether or not she really enjoyed "the true religion." She said that her son-in-law had for some time been voting with the Black Republicans, "but thank the Lord, at the last election he had come back to the good old Democratic party, and ever since, she had had a constant season of rejoicing," and that now she could "truly say that she had religion." There are quite a number of true Union men scattered through this part of the country. To live among these hissing Copperheads and breathe an atmosphere tainted with treason, must require great courage.

is the Capital of "Canada," and is the centre of a considerable business. I met here, my friend S——, formerly of Salem. I asked him what he was doing here. "Well," said he, "Salem is not a healthy place for Democrats. So I have moved to Scio." I think —— is reader for the Copperheads of the "forks"—reads the Banner of Liberty, and the La Crosse Democrat to them.

I remained in the "forks" less than 24 hours, and so made my escape without getting the itch or other pestilence.

LEBANON

is a pleasant little town standing on the edge of the great prairie south of the Santiam, and near the foot-hills. It contains several stores and work shops, and "the Academy," an establishment that would be creditable to a much larger place. A few miles southeast of Lebanon, stands Peterson's Butte, a detached spur of the foot-hills. And several miles farther southwest of this are Ward's and Saddle Buttes—isolated hills standing in the broad prairie. These Buttes are splendid observatories overlooking the largest and best prairie in Oregon.

BROWNSVILLE

is about ten miles south of Lebanon, situated on the Calapooia creek. It has a good Woolen Factory, a fine grist mill, and a number of stores, shops, livery stables, etc. It is a flourishing business place, and is surrounded by an excellent country. There is quite a large district of the best of farming land up the Calapooia, east of Brownsville. Besides this and the valleys of the two Santiams, there are several other nice little valleys—"Sweet Home," Brush Creek, Mohawk, etc., etc., lying hid among the great foot-hills of the Cascade mountains. At this season of the year there is not a more pleasant road in the State to travel than this back road from Lebanon to Spore's ferry on the McKenzie, a distance of more than thirty miles. In places it meanders through beautiful low hills, dotted with dwarfed oaks, ash and maple, yellow with ripe autumn; then it stretches along the edge of the prairie, and ascends some long sloping hillside, or passes over some knoll or spur, affording splendid views of the broad valley. These hills for several miles back are settled up, and make one of the best grazing districts of the State. But the very best grass land that I have seen in the State lies just at the foot of these hills, extending a mile or two into the prairie.

There are three post offices on this road south of Brownsville, "Diamond Hill," "Pine" and "Willamette Forks." Two of them are less than three miles apart. From Diamond Hill I rode across the prairie to (12 miles west), through a drenching rain. I asked a man to tell me the locality of Muddy. (Muddy is the name of a creek running through the prairie.) "Well," said he, "its all around here." I thought so, too. Harrisburg is on the Willamette river, and is one of the most prosperous little towns in the county. It has a large flouring mill, several fine stores, shops, etc. From this place I went to Peoria, a little town on the river, 12 miles north of Harrisburg, and thence to Albany. While here I visited the new college, which is now completed and in full operation. From the cupola of the college you can see Spencer's Butte, 50 miles south, Mount Hood and the Three Sisters, and the Cascade mountains for 150 miles, and the "Albany Prairie," like a great map, checkered with farms, striped with roads and studded with farm houses, as far as the eye can reach.

HARRISBURG,

ITEMS.

On the 27th at Brownsville, a man by the name of Cosgrove beat his wife and threatened to kill her. He was arrested, and being unable to give bail, was sent to Albany in charge of two men to be lodged in jail, but made his escape on the road there, and has not been heard from since.

To-day the steamer Echo landed at the wharf boat at this place and discharged her cargo. Soon after it was discharged, the wharf boat was sinking. By a superhuman effort the goods, $10,000 worth, were removed before she sunk. She sunk in half an hour after the leak was discovered.

P. W. G.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT BY RAIL.—The distance from Philadelphia to San Francisco, by way of Chicago, is three thousand three hundred miles. If a train should run at the rate of twenty miles per hour, including stoppages—which is, perhaps, the average rate for railroads in this country—it would require a little less than seven days to accomplish the distance. As for the grades the traveler will ascend from the level of tide water at Baltimore or San Francisco, to a hight of eight thousand two hundred and forty-two feet, or over a mile and a half, at Evans' Pass.

They have queer ideas of hospitality up in Lafayette, Indiana. The Journal of that city gives the following account of a "friendly mill" which occurred there a few days ago: "An ex-editor of this city, and country editor in town seeing the elephant, yesterday took it into their heads to drink another well-known citizen drunk. On the twenty-fifth round, country editor went to grass, and was carried off on a shutter. On the thirtieth, the ex-editor went under, leaving the citizen master of the field, straight as a shingle. Lafayette whisky is death on weak kneed suckers."

"A young woman of eighteen years has been doing a thriving business in Barton, Vermont, by borrowing mourning in which to attend the funeral of her mother. She sobbed a black dress from one kind-hearted lady, a shawl from another, a funeral cloak from another and then took train. The son of one of the sufferers, suspecting something, followed her to the depot and got back a dress, to the immense disgust of the afflicted soul, who swore at him roundly. The rest of her plunder she made off with.

They have a curious way of selecting the candidates for lord Mayor of London. All Aldermen who have filled the office of Sheriff are eligible, but the custom is to select the one next in official seniority to the actual incumbent. This saves a world of trouble.

A young man from Vermont who went out on a sailing party last week and became a victim to sea sickness, describes the sensation thus: "The first hour I was afraid I should die; and the second I was afraid I shouldn't."

The Dangers of the Republican Party.

[From the Nation of Sept. 19th.]

The result of the elections in Maine and California conveys one or two lessons which, we feel satisfied from what occurred at the Massachusetts Convention, the Republican party will take to heart. The one is the danger of relying too much on party discipline, or even the goodness of the principle on which the party is based; and the other is, the danger of importing too much of the Puritan spirit in politics.

When Connecticut was lost, last spring, the local papers tried to persuade themselves that their defeat was due to their not having been ardent enough in their advocacy of negro suffrage, and proclaimed that they were going to secure victory next year by working harder for it than ever, and in this pleasing theory they received strong support from the New York Tribune. But nobody whom the horn-blowing which precedes and follows elections does not bewilder ever took this in anything but a Pickwickian sense. We took the liberty ourselves, at the risk of being misunderstood, of suggesting that it was not too little negro suffrage, but too much which caused the disaster, and that it was the over-reliance of the party on its efficacy which gave the State to the Democrats, by causing the Republicans to pay too little attention to other things. For instance, they flattered themselves that mere shouting for equal rights would make such performances as the nomination of a professed mountebank in the Third District of no consequence; and the Tribune and Independent have thought that merely by hurrahing and flinging of caps in the air, the rank and file could be made to swallow him. In like manner, in other parts of the State, the approach of the election was with singular want of tact, selected as a fitting occasion for the enforcement of a prohibitory law which had for a long time previous been allowed to lie dormant.

In California the Republican party has suffered itself for five years to be led by notorious knaves, who, while waving their hats for Congress and the black man with one hand, had the other thrust up to the elbow in the State Treasury. The main body of the party are so much impressed with the gravity of the contest now going on at Washington that they continue to vote for these rascals while knowing and deploring their rascality; but the main body are not about to carry the day. There is a sufficient number who would rather see the State lost to the Republicans than see the State Government in the hands of rogues, and so these go over. The new Governor of California is a War Democrat, opposed to the Congressional plan of reconstruction; but he is a man of stainless honor, of antique purity and simplicity of character, and one of the most devoted Republicans and anti Slavery men in the country. A man to whom the Republican party owes much, and who knows Mr. Haight well, and knows the condition of California politics, has assured us that had he been in California at the last election, he would have voted the Democratic ticket.

We warn the Republican party that the number of such men—of men who, while ardent friends of equal rights, and thoroughly convinced of the wisdom of the Congressional plan of reconstruction, are yet so alarmed and disgusted by the prevailing political corruption, by the shocking abuse of the appointing system, so convinced that unless we can bring more purity of character to bear on the work of politics, neither universal suffrage nor any other arrangement of political machinery will save our system of government—is increasing, and that nothing but a wise deference for their prejudices or "simplicity," will enable it to keep the field and finish successfully the great work which it has in hand.

The Nation in Maine calls attention to another—somewhat unfortunate tendency in the organization though it is a fault not very far removed from this—and that is its tendency to introduce a somewhat Puritanic spirit into legislation. Those who abuse Puritanism are [illegible] only to look at its bad side. We, on the other hand, it ought not to be forgotten, are accustomed only to look at its good side. We read Macaulay's splendid eulogy of it, and see its wonderful career—forgetting that it belonged to an exceptional era, and that as a permanent spirit in politics it works mischief as well as good.

In Connecticut, in New York, in Pennsylvania, and in New Jersey, as well as in other States, the ardent Republicans are never sufficiently numerous to win an election. They have to [illegible] their majority by the help of a few thousands who are only lukewarm Republicans, whose political feelings are not strong, who are affected in voting by divers collateral considerations, and who, unless they are well looked after, are as likely as not to go over to the enemy on the day of battle. It is these men who decide political contests in nearly all the closely divided States. We dwelt strongly on this circumstance last spring in commenting on the Connecticut election, although it is something for which, amid the roaring about "armies" and "banners" and "bivouacs" which the party papers keep up about election time, it is almost impossible to secure attention. The writer of the excellent papers on "Constitution Making," which have been appearing in our columns, also pointed it out in his article last week, showing that this State has changed sides in politics five times in the last ten elections "by a few votes in each precinct going over from one party to the other." In 1862 those few thousand votes gave the government of it to the Copperheads, in the very midst of the war, when the zeal of the mass of the Republican party was at white heat, simply because they were somewhat disgusted with the military mismanagement and the excessive touching of Mr. Seward's "little bell."

Now, as long as the success of the party is dependent on the fidelity of these auxiliary corps, their feelings—prejudices, if you will—have to be borne in mind in the management of it. They will support you in the pursuit of your fundamental idea if you do not ask them to sacrifice too much of it. But you cannot work them up to such a pitch of enthusiasm about it as to get them to vote for a "showman" or a pugilist simply because he supports it, or to wink at the total disregard of character in nominations or of purity in legislation. The Republican party, unmindful of this, has, in various directions of late, been making rather heavy drafts on their devotion. In Pennsylvania, for instance, they have been arraying themselves against a Judge simply because, in the exercise of his judicial functions, he held the issue of legal tenders by Congress to be, as a matter of law, unconstitutional—a performance which the leading party organ, the Tribune, to its great honor, had the courage to denounce. Now, there are enough Republicans in Pennsylvania who care more for judicial independence than they do for negro suffrage or the Congressional plan of reconstruction to be disgusted by an incident of this sort, and either stay at home on election day or go into the Democratic camp. We know what was done in Connecticut and what the result was.

By the Puritan idea we mean a feeling of impatience at sin in others, and a disposition to repress it by the strong arm. It is something more than abhorrence of sin or impatience of evil and suffering or indignation at the wrong of others. All these feelings are universal in their nature. Puritanism is purely an outgrowth of Christianity. The ancients had no such sentiment. Socrates was put to death, not because he was a heretic, but "because he corrupted the youth," and thus undermined the State. The Roman sumptuary laws did not aim to control individual character, but to check that corruption which was eating out the life of the republic. But when Christ founded a religion resting on personal character; when personal purity became the great aim of life, and personal sin the one thing to be shunned, the feeling of impatience at sin in one's self was not long in passing over into impatience at sin in others, and eager desire to rescue them from the snares of the evil one. Hence the great missionary movements of Christianity, beginning with St. Paul, worthily represented by the Augustines, Xaviers and Brainerds who have succeeded him.

Like all other human qualities, this crowning virtue of Christianity was capable of being transformed into an evil. It is an easy step from a genuine Christian sympathy with others and a desire to aid them, to a feeling that we have a right—nay, are under an obligation—to force our aid upon them and reform them even against their will. If our neighbor does not see that he is committing a sin, is not that all the more a reason for preventing his involuntary wickedness? This impatience with the sin of others, and haste to deal with it as if it were one's own, is the essence of Puritanism. But it is not confined to the Puritans, nor is it peculiar to Protestantism. It inspired the directors of the Inquisition, as well as the Covenanters of Scotland and the "saints" of Cromwell's army. Wherever people are intelligent, thoughtful and earnest, this spirit will spring up spontaneously among them, to give scope to the [illegible] of their convictions and the warmth of their zeal. Strength of conviction is in great danger of passing into intolerance. For all people act from mixed motives, and it is not always possible to distinguish this spirit [illegible] from the genuine Christian principle from which it springs. The sense of pain at the misconduct of others and of indignation at the wrongs suffered by others are wholly legitimate and praiseworthy feelings. We [illegible] to prevent others from suffering from violence or fraud—these are matters which concern us all. But when our aim ceases to be the [illegible] of wrongs, and we begin to legislate for the [illegible] tion of personal sin, we pass from the [illegible] of politics into that of morals; that is, [illegible] laws to bear upon actions which, in their nature, [illegible] nobody but the [illegible] and his Maker [illegible] our [illegible] as the arbiter of right or wrong.

The Work Goes On

That the "unreconstructed element" of the South is powerless to prevent the consummation of reconstruction in any of the ten rebel States, is now rendered certain by the result of the Virginia election. In that State the "Conservative," or reactionary rebel element is stronger than in any other, and though it labored hard to defeat a Convention it failed most signally to do it. Before the election there were many apprehensions lest the persistent energy of the rebel party and the reported divisions among their opponents might defeat the Convention and bring the work of reconstruction so far as Virginia is concerned, to a deadlock. The whites having a very large majority, it was thought doubtful whether votes enough could be secured to authorize the holding of a Convention to frame a Constitution, in the manner required by the law. But the Convention has carried by 50,000 majority, and those in favor of reconstruction under the existing laws, have elected a large majority of the members of that body. So far, there has been no successful resistance to the progress of reconstruction. The results of equal suffrage in the South now begin to clearly appear. Without the enfranchisement of the blacks it would have been utterly impossible to restore the ex States to the Union except on the conditions chosen by those who have done all in their power to break up the Government.

Those who last year were so exceedingly anxious to get back into the Union, are now doing all they can to keep out of it. Last year they expected to come back on their own terms, sending to Congress those who had been most prominently engaged in the service of the rebellion, and holding their States completely and irrevocably under their own control. They had hopes of [illegible] the Government to pay the damages done by the war, including the full value of the negroes who had been emancipated. The proposed constitutional amendment, as it forbids this and prohibits leading rebels from holding positions under the Government, was spitefully rejected. With them the Union was then the watchword, believing that they could come in as they were and have full sway again as they had of old. But this is now all reversed. They do not want to come back into the Union now. But they are coming very fast nevertheless though sorely against their will, because the prospect for the ascendancy of the "Democracy" in that quarter is not so good as it was eighteen months ago. It is now certain that the rebel States will be reorganized within a very few months and their members admitted to Congress. The Democratic party which was so vociferous in demanding their immediate admission a short time ago is now silent about it. That party, like the Southern rebels, is not so strongly in favor of the Union now as it professed to be last year when it was demanding the recognition of the rebel governments of the South and urging the admission into Congress of such men as A. H. Stephens, "General" Battle and their Democratic compatriots.

THE MRS. LINCOLN AFFAIR.—That Mrs. Lincoln has lately acted with great indiscretion, is a matter about which there cannot be two opinions. We do not and have not attempted to justify her [illegible] in bringing her [illegible] before the public in the [illegible] she has done, yet on the other hand we cannot help thinking some of the comments of the press in the premises are nothing less than [illegible] of the [illegible] are [illegible] the Copperhead press, which of course, gloats eagerly at every opportunity to bring reproach upon the name of Lincoln; and also that part of the Republican press [illegible] and Weed [illegible], and which, for the [illegible] of revenge, is anxious to [illegible] Mrs. Lincoln [illegible] her husband's clothing while his yet unburied body was lying in the [illegible]. Or who believes that she stole and carried the plate belonging to the White House, and many other articles of [illegible] the days of [illegible] stories, not warranted by any known facts, which we alluded to when we said that the Herald had made a ghoulish attack on Mrs. Lincoln. But that paper calls them "valid [illegible]." It would be difficult to conceive what it would call scurrilous and reprehensible.

GARIBALDI AND ROME.—It is pretty evident that Garibaldi will fail in his designs on Rome. The French and Italian Governments are both taking active measures to uphold the authority of the Pope. That Italy wants Rome for her capital is undoubted, and that she would have it were it not for the fear of the overwhelming power of France, is equally apparent. But France is determined to sustain the Pope, and Victor Emanuel dares not brave the power of the Emperor. Therefore the Italian Government is sending troops against Garibaldi, and the bold chieftain will in all probability find it impossible to contend against the force which will meet him. The deep discontent throughout Italy because of the action of the Government will probably be of no great advantage to Garibaldi, since the requirements of France, backed by the military power of that nation, will overawe the Italian people as they have overawed their King. Since France has determined to interfere actively against the movement on Rome, it seems impossible for Garibaldi's project to succeed. Unless a general war should [illegible], and Prussia, now very strong as a military power, should back Italy in resisting the demands of France, the idea of making Rome the capital of Italy can scarcely be realized. It must wait for a future opportunity.

Resignation of Judge Shattuck

The Record states that Hon. E. D. Shattuck, Judge of the Fourth Judicial District, has sent in his resignation to the office of the Secretary of State, to take effect on the first day of December next. Judge Shattuck has held the position he occupies for almost a full term of six years, and no Judge in the State has ever inspired more confidence among the people, either for legal attainments, sound judgment or integrity of character. It will be generally regretted here where his labors as a jurist are best known, and for that reason best appreciated, that reasons should have existed which led him to resign the place he has so acceptably filled. We may remark here that no Judge in the State has ever, in the same length of time, performed an amount of labor equal to that performed by Judge Shattuck since he was elected to this position. The duties of the Judge of the Fourth District have increased until they have become exceedingly onerous. As they are so greatly disproportionate to the duties of the Judge of any other District it would seem to be wholly just that the labors of the several Judges should be more equitably divided. One term of office as Judge of the Fourth District is almost sufficient to wear out a man of common vigor.

There is a story in the telegraphic dispatches of a contemplated uprising of the negroes of the South. There is no probable truth in the story, but if it is true, it would seem that the negroes are about to imitate the conduct of their late masters. That's what comes of bad example and bad associations.

In speaking of the great rebellion, Johnson now draws it extremely mild. He calls it "the opposition which was made in some States to the execution of the Federal laws."

The paragraph which follows is from a late article in the Record.

The Herald says "no honest party will impose upon others a measure which it rejects itself," and says it in reference to negro suffrage in the Southern States. When those States indulged in treason and plunged the nation into civil war they lost the relation of sovereign States and became conquered territory. The act of treason was criminal, and criminals are not to be trusted with power. Negro suffrage is in one sense a safeguard to the nation, for the negroes have never showed a want of national faith. In another sense, negro suffrage is a punishment to treason—the only punishment it is likely to meet. We impose upon criminals in Oregon terms we reject for ourselves, which is a refutation of the Herald's maxim. We can't expect a party which respects Jeff. Davis more than Lincoln, and Lee and Beauregard more than Grant and Sheridan, and which regrets the abolition of slavery, to look with fairness at Republican principles, or speak with respect of Republican statesmen.

The Unionist has the following on the subject of impeachment.

Those who are so timidly constituted that it shocks their effeminate nerves to hear the subject of impeachment mentioned, soothe their grandmotherly squeamishness by saying that posterity will sufficiently execrate the memory of Andrew Johnson! This may all be very fine, and it may be true that posterity will most effectually denounce him, but while future generations are hissing the name of Johnson, will it not do so feeling a certain degree of contempt for the generation that lacked the moral courage to remove from office a man whose public acts were stained by every crime known in the catalogue of official malfeasance?

Gov. Brownlow has been elected United States Senator. Another vote on the impeachment of President Johnson.—Unionist.

Brownlow will not be Senator till Johnson ceases to be President. The Presidential term will expire in 1869, when Brownlow's term as Senator will begin.

THE COMBINATION OF INGREDIENTS used in making "Brown's Bronchial Troches" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety. The Troches are used always with good success, and are widely known as the best remedy for Coughs, Colds, Throat Diseases, and Asthmatic troubles.

FROM JUDGE MARQUAM.—I have used Henley's Royal Balsam for a bad cough, and I find it a splendid medicine. I have recommended it to a great many. They speak very highly of the medicine, and I freely recommend it to the public.

P. A. MARQUAM.

DO NOT BE SHY!—As you pass No. 91 Front street, do not start to pass without dropping in to examine the extensive stock of Fine and Custom Made Clothing, Dry Goods, etc., KOHN & FISHEL keep for sale. Once in the Store, you will surely never regret having come there, as the quality and price of the Goods will so please you that whether you need them or not you will buy them, anyhow.

Bachtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c. &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

HAVING HAD MY ATTENTION CALLED TO A notice in the "Morning Oregonian" of yesterday signed by S. D. Smith denying that he had intended to dispose of the Western Hotel, justice to myself renders it necessary for me to say that I had arranged to make (to take the Hotel on the 1st day of November) but Mr. Smith having concluded not to complete the sale (and paid the forfeit agreed upon). I make this statement because I have mentioned to my friends in adjoining towns that I was going into the Hotel on the 1st, and do not wish to be placed in a false position regarding it.

THE SCHOOLS OF VANCOUVER.—The Vancouver Register has an article on the schools of that city, from which we take the following The Sisters of Charity are the founders at this place, of what is known as Providence School for young ladies, and the school for orphan girls and boys. These schools were established in 1856 or the early part of 1857, are taught in separate buildings but convenient to each other and are under the exclusive management and tuition of the Sisters They have grown from a small beginning of course to a very respectable magnitude and importance The young ladies' school now numbers about 80 scholars The boys school 40 and the girls 39 The total attendance of pupils at these schools now, for the year, we are told, is at least 200 * * * Holy Angels College was first opened at this place about four years ago, if we recollect rightly under the management of Rev. Father Mans The same gentleman assisted by two associates, is now at its head The school numbers at present, we are informed, about fifty scholars Mr. Mans is well and favorably known as a teacher and we take pleasure from personal knowledge in speaking very favorably of Mr Boulet.

Vancouver Seminary was organized something more than six months ago, under the general law providing for the incorporation of school and colleges, by a number of citizens who felt that there was in the matter of education a want still unsupplied The school is now in the third term of its existence under Mr W D Nichols as Principal, and Mrs E. J Hines who has just been engaged as Preceptress A suitable plat of ground consisting of four acres has been purchased by the Trustees and a cheap but comfortable building fifty by twenty five feet already completed in which the school is now taught. The school thus far has been a gratifying success Mr N. is an educated and experienced teacher, and the Trustees feel satisfied that in Mrs Hines they have obtained a valuable acquisition to the school The second term which has just closed showed an average attendance of fifty scholars This is very well but the Institution is in its infancy and needs the aid of additional patronage

In addition to the above schools now in active operation the public school will open on Monday, the 4th inst under the charge of Mr. L. T. [illegible].

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We learn from Mr Troup, engineer on the [illegible], that at the mass meeting Thursday evening the following nominations for city officers, were made For Mayor, A G Tripp; Recorder, J F Smith; Marshal, P. E. Church will be held on Mill Plain to-day (saturday) and to-morrow Rev Gustavus Hines will preach in the M. E Church in this city Sunday evening at 7 o'clock During the present week we have become aware of the fact that some families from [illegible] have recently entered our county and have [illegible] on some of our swale lands Among them is Rev W Pitner, formerly of Illinois, and family They think they are only the advance guard of a large [illegible] of families who will soon emigrate from that State to our new Territory ....The U S District Court is yet in session, Judge Lewis presiding The grand jury has been discharged. Several bills of indictment were found on the part of the United States and the Territory The first case disposed of by jury trial was S W Brown, plaintiff, vs. A G Tripp, defendant, in an action of forcible entry and detainer, in which judgment was rendered for plaintiff and a writ of restitution ordered The trial in [illegible] of the case of Wm Rulick, Administrator, [illegible] vs. James Miles, has been in progress before the jury the past three days, and up to Friday afternoon, the time of this writing, was continuing.

Dear Sir—We notice by the Daily Herald of Oct. 10th, that the freight on the [illegible] we sent to the editor of that paper, came very heavy on his [illegible], and not wishing to impose upon Beriah nor interfere with his finances, we herewith send two dollars [illegible] will please hand to him, in payment of the [illegible] received. If he does not [illegible], keep it and charge it where Beriah [illegible] blunders, "to his dish nasty." The [illegible] handed, as we can prove, and what [illegible] may have been we know not, but [illegible] flattered with his acknowledgment, and [illegible] him that we will pay the freight on all [illegible] we send him hereafter. Regretting that our [illegible] favor and compliments proved a nuisance to the [illegible], we remain, respectfully,

Yours, &c. KOONS & LEIDY

THE CONGO TROUPE.—Jo Delavan's benefit last evening was the [illegible] yet achieved here by the Congo Troupe. Jo and Johnny Graham were better than usual in their [illegible] acts. The tableaux were well arranged and [illegible] with much better effect than any before [illegible]. Mrs. Delavan was deservedly and enthusiastically [illegible] in the ballad, "Sleeping in the Air." The play of "The Drunkard" was done very effectively, and the farce of "The Live Indian" was first-rate. Altogether, the Congos are [illegible] about as good minstrel [illegible] as we have had here for years. There will be a new bill to-night.

[illegible] TELEGRAPH CABLE.—Mr. Haines, Superintendent of the Northern [illegible] of the telegraph line is in this city, superintending the work of putting the line in good repair, before the setting in of winter Yesterday he was [illegible] to substituting it for the one now lying across the river near Milwaukie. The [illegible] is said to be [illegible]. THE ROADS.—It is represented that some portions of the road between here and Hillsboro is in a horrible condition, especially where it passes through standing timber. In some places it is cut into holes so deep as to endanger wagons passing over it One or two of the bridges also, are much out of repair Where are the road supervisors?

THE "U. S. GRANT."—We noticed the U. S. Grant splurging around the river yesterday, from which we [illegible] that the business of repairing her engines has been completed and that hereafter she will be on hand for her regular trips between this city and Astoria

STATE ITEMS.

The woolen factory at Salem took fire on Wednesday morning, but it was discovered and extinguished before much damage was done The fire caught in the roof The only harm was the tearing off of about 500 shingles

The Coos Bay Road Company was organized at Roseburg on the 10th inst with a capital stock of $6,000 It is expected that the entire trade of Rogue River Valley will pass over the Coos Bay road, in less than one year from this time

The Salem flouring mill has suspended operations until the new improvements are completed which will probably be in December Then says the Record, it will resume operations with great increased capacity of manufacture and with every improvement possible to make Salem flour second to none in the world The stoppage of the water power works temporary inconvenience in elevating the large amount of grain now being received

Some days ago the Deputy Sheriff of Jackson county went down in the stage in charge of an unfortunate insane girl who was being sent to the Insane Asylum A brother of the young lady accompanied him and no doubt every care was taken of her, so far as they were capable of judging what was necessary and providing for it Owing to the frantic insanity of the patient she was strapped down upon a mattress, and at Aurora being worse than usual, a physician was called, who pronounced death not far off She was taken into the hotel and died there raving mad Owing to superstitious feelings, it was difficult to find any one to lay out the corpse. No woman could be got to do it The circumstances of the case are very melancholy and were probably unavoidable We quote from the Record

A letter from Roseburg dated Oct 21, gives the following The "Lost Cause" was revived severely in this town upon the receipt of the general election news The Roseburg Democracy fired their anvils, shouted, yelled screamed and howled Salutes were fired and cheers were heartily given for Jeff Davis Stonewall Jackson, pirate Semmes and John H Surratt while not a cheer was heard for any of the successful Democratic candidates whose election they pretend to celebrate The affair was one that would have reminded of the scalp-dance of a successful band of Digger Indians much more than the rejoicings of members of the party of "superior civilization" After their powder had been expended, and their throats had ceased to vibrate, the rabble harnessed themselves up, and placed the most "Hon," of their number in a large cart, turned a crockery crate over him, to keep him from falling out, and charged, pell mell, through the principal streets of town, until their legs failed to do duty Well of sich is Democracy, it is their nature and they can't help it

The colored people of California have got up a huge petition to the Legislature this winter asking that certain illiberal discriminations against them be stricken out. The Legislature of that State would be a good deal more likely to provide that every Democrat who chooses may steal from a negro with impunity

What has become of the notion that the negro would "vote just as his master told him?" What hosts of exploded humbugs there are, lying along the track of the last ten years!

At the Whatcom county, (W. T) Fair a short time ago, cabbages were exhibited weighing forty pounds each, and potatoes weighing four pounds apiece and eighty pounds to the hill

NEW HATS—NEW STYLES.—Mr Meussdorffer received by the steamer Sierra Nevada and has just opened a very full stock of hats, winter styles. Among them there are several beautiful, light and cheap styles, the St. Cloud Hugo, Beaver Park, Franklin, Brown Climax, etc, etc The prices are much lower for same material than heretofore. Mr M also has a large lot of Gents' and Ladies' furs, which he can afford at a great reduction from former prices In his immense stock there is something to suit almost every possible taste.

OPPOSITION ROUTE TO NEW YORK.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in to-day's paper of the North American Steamship Co The next steamer is the America, which leaves San Francisco Nov 15 Their steamers go crowded every trip, and the line is becoming more and more popular daily The splendid new steamer Nevada is on the way here, and will soon take her place in the Line, and the Oregonian another fine steamer—is nearly ready for sea The trips are quick, the route healthy and pleasant

PORTLAND TURN VEREIN.—A Regular Meeting of the Turn Verein Society will be held on Sunday, November 3d, at 11 o'clock A. M at Turn Verein Hall. Business of importance demands a full attendance.

A. HARS, Secretary.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at night until 2 o'clock A. M, and will serve Oysters and Suppers in every style

Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence, One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface His office is the only place where such work can be had The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street This work has given satisfaction in every case

This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and put on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful Efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and [illegible]
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, Nov. 1, 1867.

Our dispatches from San Francisco quote gold in New York on the 31st ult. at 140⅝ at the closing of the Board. Legal tenders were in fair request at San Francisco, at 72, buying, 73½, selling. At the opening session of the regular Board on the morning of the 30th, $31,000 sold for 71½, cash, and $10,000 at 71½ on 30 days time.

For the period under review, the general jobbing trade has been very fair, considering the lateness of the season. The nearness of the winter season has greatly checked sales for the interior mining regions. The Umatilla Press of the 26th, represents the freighting season as about closed. Teams and trains are now making their last trips, preparatory to going into winter quarters. The merchants of this city cannot, therefore, expect any further orders from sections remote from navigation, till the opening of next spring. Orders from the Columbia river towns and the Willamette valley, however, continue to to arrive freely and for considerable stocks, keeping the trade up to a fair average with corresponding periods of former years. Indeed, the season of activity has been prolonged beyond the anticipations of most dealers. There are very fair stocks on hand, in all departments of the market, and buyers have little or no trouble in making up their assortments. The arrival of the Sierra Nevada with over seven hundred tons of general merchandise, and the Lee Claster with a full cargo, serve to fill the market sufficiently to answer all present requirements.

Flour and Wheat—the telegraphic advices from San Francisco and New York serve to give the local market a firmness of tone which it was not, at our last report, expected. At New York, on the 29th, wheat was in moderate demand, at $1 80@$2 25 per 100 lbs. Flour was steady at $13 50. At Liverpool, wheat was 16s 3d. At San Francisco wheat was firm at $2 50 per 100 lbs., for good to choice. Holders were firm in their views, frequently refusing offers of $2 50. The quoted range was $2 50 to $2 65. Our local quotations to-day are, Imperial, Standard and Vaughn's Mills, $7 50; Dayton extra, $7; Mission Mills, $7 per bbl. in qr. sks; other brands unchanged. Wheat is firm at $1@$1 10, with exceptional sales at $1 12½@$1 15. The arrivals by team are very light for the entire week, in consequence of which all lots offered have been taken at extreme prices, proportioned to grade. The greatest part of the arrivals by river steamer, are lots purchased in the interior at prices ruling two and three weeks since.

Hardware—trade continues quiet; prices firm at previous quotations, under the effect of late advices from San Francisco.

Groceries—trade good, beyond expectations, though the [illegible] of transactions are not quite up to those of the last few weeks past. Dealers are in good supply both as regards stocks and assortments. We quote a decline in several brands of sugars. No material change in anything else, since last week. The Alta California of the 28th says: "At auction to-day Aldrich, Merrill & Co. disposed of 1,500 pkgs Hawaiian Sugars, as will be found more fully detailed elsewhere. The sales of Peruvian Sugar during the week to the California Refinery, as well as to the Grocers, have quickened the Sugar market somewhat. But in no article is there so strong and abiding confidence in its legitimacy, as the late advance in Rice. The stock during the year has been rapidly depleted by consumption in a largely increased ratio—by an extraordinary export requirement besides several cargoes past due here have been either lost or badly damaged to an extent to render them unavailable this year. And yet with all this advance of 1@2c per lb, the article is proportionately cheaper than almost any other leading staple. The last rise in Flour adds greatly to the Rice consumption on the part of resident Chinese. Coffee and Tea do not yet sympathize with the improvement in Rice, although holders are exhibiting considerable confidence in the future, and are not disposed to break the price. Spirits generally are slow of sale, excepting perhaps Gin or Brandy, which is said to be quite scarce at this time. Domestic liquors, common whisky, etc., are quite dull and unvaried. Oils of all kinds appear to favor the buyer. Even Coal and Kerosene have given way in price, notwithstanding the large interior [illegible]. Candles, on the contrary, move off lively at prices highly remunerative to the leading holders. We notice on the market for public favor, a new brand of Yeast Powders, made by Carrington of New York, and consigned to I. [illegible]. We understand that the Salt dealers have [illegible] into a combination for self protection, and that [illegible] of Ground and Table, have been considerably advanced in price as the result."

Dry Goods trade more quiet. Prices are generally well kept up, though some descriptions of cottons are getting scarce. We have no changes to note in quotations.

Building Materials [illegible] for cement and lime, rather active with [illegible] in the market. We quote New Jersey [illegible] at $2 [illegible] advance of $1 per bbl. [illegible] The [illegible] of the 25th, says: [illegible] of the city have [illegible] the jobbing rates of [illegible] Redwood and Oregon, [illegible] Surfaced and Flooring, both [illegible]."

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon;

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Randall, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles. Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonsfull of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked. Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual; hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house.

Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H. COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,

WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that, was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.

Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale. But Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. We find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.

BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City.

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near taking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which on several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.

I am Yours truly,
W. F. BARBER.

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time; I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody; my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend it all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.

I remain yours, truly,
J. H. MORRIL.

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wegner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.

I. MITCHELL.

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any body suffering from pain in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. DORE COHN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah—ss

I JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty-three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County, State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business, on horseback, from my home this morning. When I left house I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson's stable, on First street, in this city when I heard Mr. Rennick's offer to bet that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennick offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr. Rennick's house and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever.

JEREMIAH BROCK.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this August 29th, 1867.

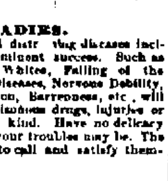
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injurious or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
